(Position Grade: FSN-9)
Not-Ordinarily Resident FP-5
(Position Grade: FP-5 is confirmed by Washington)

PLEASE NOTE:

1. Salary may vary depending on the qualifications of the successful candidate.
2. Only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
3. All ordinarily resident applicants must have the required residency permits to be eligible for consideration.
4. U.S. taxes are deducted for U.S. citizens and U.S. Legal Permanent Residents (green card holders).
5. The U.S. Embassy does not accept hand-delivered applications from outside the Embassy community. Please send by post, courier, fax, or e-mail. All applications received by the closing date will be accepted.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION:

The incumbent is one of two public affairs programmers in the Public Affairs Section who, under the direction of the Public Affairs Officer (PAO), plan, develop, and conduct post public affairs programs consistent with the mission public affairs plan. These programs enhance and promote understanding of United States foreign and domestic policies. The programmer maintains contact with key Japanese individuals and institutions for the purpose of promoting the mission's information and program themes, reports on the success of public affairs programs, represents the public affairs section at official functions, and acts on behalf of the PAO as required.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

All applicants must submit specific and comprehensive information supporting each selection criterion detailed below. Please see our website for more details: <http://japan.usembassy.gov>.

1. Education: University graduate with a BA or BS degree, with a major in international relations, business, fine arts, liberal arts, journalism, marketing, communications or equivalent is required.
2. Prior Work Experience: Four to six years of progressively responsible experience in cultural activities, university teaching, the media, government, public affairs, event planning, or related fields required.
3. Language Proficiency: Level IV (fluent) Speaking/Writing/Reading English and Japanese are required.

4. Knowledge: Professional-level knowledge of Japan's political, economic, social, historic and educational structures; key regional figures in government, mass media, culture and academic circles; and US history, society, culture and politics required.
5. Skills and Abilities: Must be computer literate (MS Word/Excel).

SELECTION PROCESS:

When equally qualified, U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (AEFMs) and U.S. Veterans will be given preference. Therefore, it is essential that the candidate address the required qualifications above in the application.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Management will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget, and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current OR employees serving a probationary period, or NOR employees in the first 90 days of their appointment, are not eligible to apply.

TO APPLY:

Interested applicants for this position must submit the following or the application will not be considered:

1. Application for U.S. Federal Employment (SF-171 or OF-612); or
2. A current resume or curriculum vitae that provides the same information as OF-612; plus
3. Candidates who claim U.S. Veterans preference must provide a copy of their Form DD-214 with their application.
4. Ordinarily resident applicants must submit a copy of required residency permit. The U.S. Embassy does not sponsor work visas in Japan.
5. Any other documentation (e.g., test scores, essays, certificates, awards, copies of degrees earned) that addresses the qualification requirements of the position as listed above. Applications are available at <http://japan.usembassy.gov/e/info/tinfo-jobs.html> or contact the Human Resources Office.
